There will be a consultation meeting involving the national union with the state branches involved to consider the change implementation process, an overview of the likely timing overall and in each centre, the likely labour requirements, location issues and any mitigation issues. National issues arising will be responded to and if that requires further meeting it will be of a similar format.
 - b. Consultation concerning further local implementation issues such as the details of relocation and timing and particular redeployment and redundancy will be the subject to State level consultation including the State union.
